THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
CHRISTMAS EVE
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 2024, 5:00 PM

WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Whether you are a first-time visitor, long-time parishioner, or fall somewhere in between, we are honored and enriched by your presence for this service, and offer you a sincere welcome to this parish church and hope you will feel at home.

As we once again celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, we encourage you to join fully in the prayers and carols and to share in the Holy Communion. This is a family service, so if a little one is a bit squirmy or fussy, you need not worry.

All baptized Christians are welcome and encouraged to receive both the bread and the wine at communion. If you wish to receive communion, but would find the approach to the altar rail difficult, please let an usher know so that we can bring the Sacrament to you in your pew.

Should you be seeking a church to call your own, we hope that your search is over and that you will become a member of All Saints.

Our regular Sunday services are at 10:00 AM. every week and at 8:00 and 10:00 AM on the first Sunday of the month. Sunday School follows the 10:00 AM service.

Again, welcome, and may this be a most joyful Christmastide for you and all those whom you love.

Please take a moment to silence or switch off your phone so that we may all enter into worship without distraction. Thank you!

Welcome

Bidding Prayer

Fr. Byrne

The people stand

Beloved in Christ, on this most holy night, let it be our care and delight to prepare ourselves to hear again the message of the angels, and in heart and mind to go even unto Bethlehem, to see the Babe lying in a manger.

The congregation may be seated.

Hymn:

“Once in Royal David's City”

Irby

Verses 1 and 2 Solo

1. Once in royal David's city
Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her baby
In a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little child.

2. He came down to earth from heaven,
Who is God and Lord of all,
And his shelter was a stable,
And his cradle was a stall;
With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

The Congregation joins on verse 3

3 And our eyes at last shall see him,
Through his own redeeming love
For that child, so dear and gentle
Is our Lord in Heaven above.
And he leads his children on
To the place where he has gone

4. Not in that poor lowly stable
With the oxen standing by
We shall see him, but in heaven
Set at God's right hand on high
When like stars, his children crowned
All in white shall wait around.

The First Reading

It happened in the days of Herod the king that the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a city of Galilee, called Nazareth, to a maiden named Mary who was betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the family of David.

The angel appeared to her and said, "Hail, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women." When Mary saw the angel, she was startled at what he had said, and wondered to herself what this greeting could mean.

The Angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. You are to have a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God shall give to him the throne of his forefather, David. He shall rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there shall be no end."

Then Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, seeing I have no husband?"

The angel answered and said to her, "The Holy Spirit shall come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you so that the child that is born shall be called holy, the Son of God."

Mary said, "I am the servant of the Lord. Let it be as you have said." And the angel departed from her.

The Angel's Song

From Heaven Above to Earth I Come

Gabriel and Mary

From Heaven above to earth I come to bring Good News to everyone!

Glad tidings of great joy I bring to all the world and gladly sing.

The Second Reading

In those days, a decree went out from Caesar Augustus (the emperor in far-off Rome) that all the world should be taxed. (This taxing was first imposed when Quirinius was governor of Syria) Everyone went to be taxed, each to his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, in Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, for he was of the house and lineage of David, to be taxed with Mary, his betrothed wife, who was soon to have a child.

Anthem

"O Little town of Bethlehem"

Forest Green

1. O Little town of Bethlehem
How still we see the lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight

2. O holy child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter in,
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord, Emmanuel!

The Third Reading

So it came to pass that while they were there, the time arrived for her child to be delivered. She brought forth her first-born son, wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

1. Mary: Away in a manger, no crib for his bed,
The little lord Jesus laid down his sweet head
The stars in the bright sky
looked down where he lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.
2. Joseph: The cattle are lowing; the baby awakes
But little Lord Jesus no crying he makes,
I love thee, Lord Jesus!
Look down from the sky,
And stay by my side, until morning is nigh.

3. Mary & Joseph: Be near me Lord Jesus; I ask thee to stay
Close by me forever, and love me I pray.
Bless all the dear children in thy tender care
And fit us for heaven to live with thee there.

The Fourth Reading

There were, in that same country, shepherds, abiding in the fields, keeping watch over their flocks by night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were very afraid.

But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy, which is coming to all your people. For to you is born this day, in the city of David, a Savior who is Christ, the Lord. And this will be a sign to you: you will find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

Anthem

“The First Nowell”

Please remain seated

1. The first Nowell the angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay
In fields as they lay, keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter’s night that was so deep.
2. Then let us all with one accord
Sing praises to our heavenly Lord;
That hath made heaven and earth of nought
And with his blood mankind hath bought.

*Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
Born is the King of Israel*

The Fifth Reading

Suddenly, there was with the angel, a multitude of the Heavenly Host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth toward all whom he favors.”

Please remain seated.

Harp Interlude

Alyson Wang, Asian Harp

Anthem

“Angels We Have Heard on High”

Sung by the Angel Choir

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1.
Angels we have heard on high
Singing sweetly through the night,
And the mountains in reply
Echoing their brave delight | 2.
Shepherds why this jubilee?
Why these songs of happy cheer?
What great brightness did you see?
What glad tidings did you hear? |
|--|--|

Refrain: Gloria in excelsis Deo
Gloria in excelsis Deo

The Sixth Reading

The Shepherds said to one another, “Let us go into Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.”

They went with all speed, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger.

Please remain seated

Anthem

“Hark! The Herald Angels Sing”

Mendelssohn

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1
Hark, the herald-angels sing
glory to the new-born King,
peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled.
Joyful, all ye nations rise,
join the triumph of the skies;
with the angelic host proclaim,
'Christ is born in Bethlehem.'
Hark, the herald-angels sing
glory to the new-born King. | 2
Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace:
hail, the Sun of Righteousness.
Light and life to all he brings,
risen with healing in his wings.
Mild he lays his glory by,
born that man no more may die,
born to raise the sons of earth,
born to give them second birth.
Hark, the herald-angels sing
glory to the new-born King. |
|---|---|

The Seventh Reading

And when the shepherds had seen it, they went about telling people what had been told to them about this child. And all who heard it marveled at the things which the shepherds told them.

Hymn

“Go Tell It on the Mountain”

The Troubadour will sing the verses. The cast and congregation will join on the refrain after verses 1 and 2.

Refrain: Go tell it on the Mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
Go tell it on the mountain that Jesus Christ is born!

1. While shepherds watch were keeping.
O'er silent flocks by night
Behold throughout the heavens
There shone a holy light. Refrain

2. Down in a lowly manger the humble Christ was born and God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn. Refrain

The Troubadour will sing the verses the congregation joins on the refrain after verses 1 and 2

The Eighth Reading

Now, when Jesus was born in Bethlehem, in the days of Herod the king, certain wise men from the East came to Jerusalem. “Where is the new-born King of the Jews?” they asked, for we have seen his star arise, and have come to worship him.”

Please remain seated.

Interlude

“As with Gladness”

Sung by Troubadour and Friends

1. As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold
As with joy, they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright:
So, most gracious Lord, may we
Evermore be led to thee.

2. As with joyful steps they sped to that lowly manger bed
There to bend the knee before him whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy seat

The Ninth Reading

The star that they had seen rise went before them till it came to the place where the young child was, and there it stopped. When they saw the star, they were exceedingly glad. They went into the house, and when they saw the young child with Mary, his mother, they fell down and worshipped him. They opened their treasures, and presented to him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Hymn

“We Three Kings”

Three Kings of Orient

✧ The people remain seated. During the 5th Verse, the congregation may light their tapers ✧

1. (Kings) We three kings of Orient are,
Bearing gifts we traverse afar,
Field and fountain, moor and mountain,
Following yonder star Refrain

2. (Caspar) Born a King on Bethlehem's plain
Gold I bring to crown him again,
King for ever, ceasing never,
Over us all to reign Refrain

Refrain (Congregation) O star of wonder, star of night, Star with royal beauty bright Westward leading, still proceeding, Guide us to thy perfect light

3. (Balthazar) Frankincense to offer have I:
Incense owns a Deity nigh
Prayer and praising, All men raising
Worship him God most high. Refrain

4. (Melchior) Myrrh is mine; its bitter perfume
Breathes a life of gathering gloom;
Sorrowing, sighing, Bleeding, dying
Sealed in the stone-cold tomb. Refrain

5. (Congregation) Glorious now, behold him arise, King and God and sacrifice Heaven sings alleluia, Alleluia the earth replies. Refrain

The people stand.

The Collect at the Crèche

Priest: The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.

People: And we behold his glory

Priest: Kneeling, let us pray.

☪ God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Hymn

“Silent Night”

Stille Nacht

1. (Pageant Cast) Silent night, holy night,
All is calm; all is bright
'Round yon virgin mother and child
Holy infant so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace.
Sleep in heavenly peace

2. (Pageant Cast) Silent night, holy night
Shepherds quake at the sight
Glories stream from heaven afar
Heavenly hosts sing alleluia
Christ the savior is born!
Christ the savior is born!

3. (All Sing) Silent night, holy night
Son of God, love's pure light
Radiant beams from thy holy face
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord at thy birth.
Jesus, Lord at thy birth.

As all remain kneeling, the Priest offers a concluding prayer

Almighty God, you have given your only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and to be born this night of a pure virgin: Grant that we, who have been born again and made your children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by your Holy Spirit; through our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom with you and the same Spirit be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The people stand and join in singing.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

People* It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and every-where to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us, who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made Perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People sing together

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the Prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son.....

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death. We proclaim his resurrection. We await his coming in glory.

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.....

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name...for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread.

Celebrant : Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Communion Hymns

“It Came Upon the Midnight Clear”

Carol

1. It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious song of old,
from angels bending near the earth
to touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on earth, good will to men,
from heaven's gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay to hear the angels sing.

2. Still through the cloven skies they come with peaceful wings unfurled, and still their heavenly music floats
o'er all the weary world;
above its sad and lowly plains
they bend on hovering wing,
and ever o'er its Babel-sounds
the blessed angels sing

“The Snow Lay on the Ground”

Venite adoremus

1. The snow lay on the ground, the stars shone bright, when Christ our Lord was born on Christmas night.
Venite adoremus Dominum.
Venite adoremus Dominum. Refrain

2. 'Twas Mary, daughter pure of holy Anne,
that brought into this world the God made man.
She laid him in a stall at Bethlehem;
the ass and oxen shared the roof with them. Refrain

Refrain: Venite adoremus Dominum. Venite adoremus Dominum.

3. Saint Joseph, too, was by to tend the child;
to guard him, and protect his mother mild;
the angels hovered round, and sang this song,
Venite adoremus Dominum. Refrain

4. And thus that manger poor became a throne;
for he whom Mary bore was God the Son.
O come, then, let us join the heavenly host,
to praise the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Refrain

“In the Bleak Midwinter”

Cranham

1. In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan,
earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;

2. Our God, heaven cannot hold him, nor earth sustain;

snow had fallen, snow on snow, snow on snow,
in the bleak midwinter, long ago.

heaven and earth shall flee away
when he comes to reign:
in the bleak midwinter, a stable-place sufficed
the Lord God incarnate, Jesus Christ.

3. Angels and archangels may have gathered there,
cherubim and seraphim throngèd the air;
but his mother only, in her maiden bliss,
worshiped the beloved with a kiss.

4. What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
if I were a wise man, I would do my part;
yet what I can I give him— give my heart.

After Communion, the Celebrant says Let us pray

Celebrant and people

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members Of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing The priest blesses the People, saying,

May Almighty God, who sent his Son to take our nature upon him, bless you in this holy season, scatter the darkness of sin, and brighten your heart with the light of his holiness. Amen. ✠ May God, who sent his angels to proclaim the glad news of the Savior’s birth, fill you with joy, and make you heralds of the Gospel. Amen. ✠ May God, who in the Word made flesh joined heaven to earth and earth to heaven, give you his peace and favor. Amen. ✠ And the blessing of God Almighty: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

Hymn in Procession

“Joy to the World”

Antioch Arrangement: A. Leytush

1. Joy to the world! The Lord is come
Let earth receive her king!
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven, and heaven and nature sing.

2. Joy to the world! The savior reigns;
Let us our songs employ,
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

3. No more let sin and sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found
Far as the curse is found
Far as, far as the curse is found

4. He rules the world with truth and grace
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness
And wonders of his love,
And wonders of his love,
And wonders, and wonders of his love.

Celebrant: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord, our new-born King.

People: Thanks be to God!
